SUPPORTING STUDENT SUCCESS

The Allen County School Safety Commission and the Indiana School Safety Specialist Academy
Present:

"School Security and Emergency Preparedness: Focusing on Fundamentals"

Presented by:

Kenneth S. Trump, President, National School Safety and Security Services

Ken Trump has authored three books and over 75 articles on school security and crisis issues. As one of the leading U.S. school safety experts, Ken has 25 years experience in the school safety profession and has worked with school and public safety officials from all 50 states. He is one of the most widely quoted school safety experts, appearing on all national news networks and cable TV, and in top market newspapers. Ken is a four-time invited Congressional expert witness testifying on school safety and emergency preparedness issues. He has briefed Israeli educators on school safety and emergency preparedness issues at the request of the U.S. State Department, and was an invited attendee at the 2006 White House Conference on School Safety. Ken served as an expert witness invited to testify on the federal role in addressing school bullying before a 2011 hearing of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights. Ken was instrumental in the concept design which led to the law creating the Indiana School Safety Specialist in 1999. Ken has trained and consulted for school corporations and public agencies throughout Indiana for over a decade.

Session will focus on practical, cost effective fundamentals in school safety:

Creating meaningful school safety strategies during tight budget times
Common high-risk, high liability gaps found in security assessments
Latest new trends and best practices in school emergency planning
How to engage school support staff in comprehensive safe school plans
Effectively communicate safety issues to parents, media, and the school community
